

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But this partisan act goes against public interest. It will be an unbalanced report using an unproven allegation. Basically it will be using the airwaves to defraud the taxpayers. This, I believe, is illegal.